

STARBOTS

The first-ever robot battle NFT game to exalt strategy over contingent luck

PITCH DECK

INTRODUCTION

SOLANA

Starbots is the first-ever playable robot battle game built on Solana where players gain GEAR tokens through strategically assembling their own robots, winning battles, completing missions, and conquering new lands.

Genre: Action, Strategy, Play-to-Earn

STORYLINE

In the Plutonet Universe, dogs contain a level of intelligence that goes beyond any other creatures. A life well-lived to them means being crowned the Ultimate Alpha Dog - the best of the best!

Thus, these dogs spend days and nights building and collecting engines, assembling the best robots to use as their fighting weapons. They go on battles from planet to planet, bringing along the sounds of metals crashing and grenades exploding. And the battles won't stop until there's only one left standing - the one to conquer all lands.

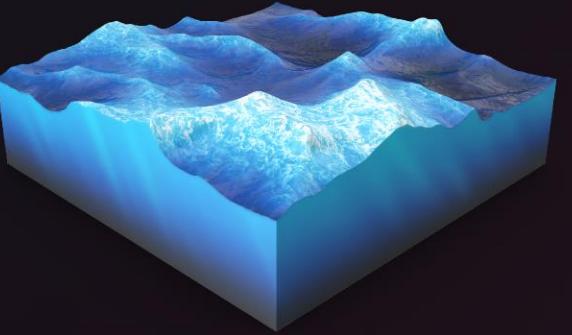

WHY SOLANA?

TRENDY DEVELOPMENT ECOSYSTEM

Solana has been the go-to platform for NFT projects & marketplaces to boom.

"BLUE OCEAN"

While Solana is the ocean for DeFi & NFT collectible projects, it is filled with undiscovered opportunities regarding playable games.

FAST ABILITY TO PROCESS INFORMATION

Unlike the slower progress on chains like Ethereum & Binance Smart Chain, Solana is able to process information & confirm transactions accordingly with the speed of the game, allowing players to experience truly decentralized blockchain.

UNIQUE FEATURES

UNLIMITED ROBOTS

With the 20,000 variety for each body part, it's an endless robot assembling progress!

LONG-TERM PLAN
